CHAIR'S REPORT/COMMITTEE LIAISON REPORTS

- A. MAC Legislative Updates of April 6 and 13, 2007
- B. Board Planning Session
- C. 4th Floor Renovation/Relocation - deferred to Interim Administrator

INTERIM ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORT

Interim Administrator, Jack Niemiec, reported that the last of the boxes and office staff will relocate to South Campus tomorrow, April 25, 2007, with Mary Villanueva and Lisa Chalko located on the 2nd Floor and his office located on the 1st Floor of the Central Services Building. It was also noted that all relocated office staff will retain their telephone numbers with the move. Renovations are expected to be completed by the end of September. For the duration of the renovations, all Board Meetings will be held in the Louis McMurray Conference and Transit Center.

Old Business

Commissioner Engle asked, following several telephone calls from constituents, that the Commission consider revisiting the dog license issue regarding late fees.

Commissioner Snider requested follow-up on county receivable past due obligation with regard to insurance amounts owed by former employees.

New Business

Commissioner Aley thanked and recognized Mary Villanueva and Lisa Chalko for Administrative Professionals Week, in appreciation of the work and help they provide for Commissioners.

Public Participation

Dennis Babcock, Whitehall Township Supervisor addressed the Board and thanked them for vote of confidence for Hilts Landing.

Dave Kendrick noted Donna Powell was now in the audience and thanked her for her work as a mentor at the Academy.
