Milford Mass. July 30th 1873

Know all persons whom this may concern that I Jonathan Walker of the Township of Canton in the County of Muskegon and State of Michigan, - do hereby, while in the enjoyment of good health and sound mind, and in view of the uncertainty of human existence. And with a desire to prevent any misunderstanding on any difficulty arising from the lack of knowledge of the disposition which I justly claim as my right to make of what I may possess as property, at my discreet; do make the following bequest, which I earnestly hope will be speedily regarded by those who may be interested in my affairs.

That if my decease shall take place before that of Lavinia R. Walker: - (namely my lawful and beloved wife) that all my individual, Real, and Personal property shall be at the control; and for the free use of the said Lavinia R. Walker while she shall remain the lawful widow of myself. And that she shall be allowed the possession and disposal of the same, while she retains the relations of her widowhood to me; without dictation or intermeddling from any person or persons wherever or whomever they may be.

I have the Lavinia R. Walker from other rational relations, after my decease. It is my request that she bestow so much of my personal property as she may not absolutely need for her support, or comfort; - upon my daughter who may then be living, in accordance with her own good judgment and sense of duty to herself and others concerned in my affairs.

Jonathan Walker

I declare and appoint David Upton Sen. and Mary E. Upton Executor & Executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

Jonathan Walker
Signed sealed published and declared by the said Jonathan Walker as and for his last Will and Testament - in the presence of us who in his presence and in the presence of each other and at his request have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses over
