Motion Carried

Chairman Mahoney encouraged everyone to participate in the many Labor Day activities scheduled in our area.

Commissioner Cross reported Storyville is moving along and has received it's first 6-figure donor along with several 5-figure donors.

Commissioner Hughes reported that the Marketing Committee will be making their recommendations soon to include a request for a strategic marketing plan, a Public Relations position and an ombudsman position within the EEO office.

Vice Chair Wilkins reported that the Emergency Needs Committee is waiting for allocation of funds but will be starting an incubating kitchen to rent out for education on healthy eating and cooking. The kitchen is slated to open October 1, 2014.

Vice Chair Wilkins reported low turnout at the SMART meeting but was pleased to report that MAC said Muskegon County will receive $721,000 revenue sharing in addition to what has already been received.
